ARTICLE I - Name

Section 1. The name of this non-profit organization shall be the Northern Kentucky Urban and Community Forestry Council, hereinafter referred to as the Council.

ARTICLE II  VISION AND MISSION STATEMENTS

Section 1. Vision Statement. The council shall work to integrate the value of urban forestry into local and regional planning and seek opportunities to merge the built and natural environments so both are accommodated and enhanced in planning and development.

Section 2. Mission Statement. The Council provides a forum for learning, sharing technical information and acting to incorporate the multiple values of urban forestry into the planning of our shared landscape. The Council also helps communities improve the management of their trees and green spaces in order to protect and enhance them for future generations, and provide an opportunity to join others who are interested in community trees.

The Council is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization comprised of an interdisciplinary group of citizens and professionals who support the work of existing organizations and agencies interested in urban forestry. Toward that purpose we strive to:

1. Increase education of public employees, organizations and residents to appreciate the value of urban forests and understand how to design, establish and maintain urban forests.
2. Evaluate current and identify new programs to focus efforts on those that will strengthen and intensify the mission achievement of the Council.
3. Evaluate the state of and changes in the urban forests in order to provide a benchmark for assessing the economic and quality of life impacts of these changes on the urban infrastructure.
4. Identify public policies and programs that would encourage the design, establishment, growth and maintenance of urban forests.
5. Move toward a financially sustainable organization by expanding and diversifying your income streams.
6. Enhance organizational structure and processes to assure efficient and effective achievement of mission and vision.

ARTICLE III  FISCAL YEAR AND REVENUE

Section 1. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Council shall be from January 1 to December 31 of each year.

Section 2. Revenue. The revenue of the Council may be from membership dues, donations, grants and any other source of revenue approved by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IV  AFFILIATIONS

Section 1. The Council may affiliate with other organizations as the Board or its designee, may deem necessary to achieve the objectives stated in ARTICLE II.

ARTICLE V  MEMBERSHIP
Section 1. Eligibility for Membership. Membership shall be open to any organization, society, association, business, public agency, group, professional, or layperson having an interest in urban forestry.

Section 2. Membership Categories. The Board of Directors may establish categories of membership and a dues schedule as it deems appropriate. Membership in the Council shall consist of two types: individual and group.

2. A full term for the offices of President and Vice Presidents shall be two years.
3. A full term for the offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be two years.
4. Terms shall commence at the close of the annual forum and, after the individual has served a full term as defined in these Bylaws, expire at the close of the annual forum.

Section 4. Election
1. Members of the Board of Directors, including Officers, shall be elected by the general membership as provided for in Article V of the Council’s Constitution, and according to the procedures outlined in Article XI of these Bylaws.
2. One half of the members of the Board of Directors shall be elected on even-numbered years and one half of the members shall be elected on odd-numbered years.
3. The offices of President and Vice President of the Board of Directors shall be elected every two years on and even-numbered year
4. The offices of Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected every two years on odd-numbered years.

Section 5. Removal of Board Members and Officers
A member of the Board of Directors or officer may be removed from office if absent from three (3) consecutive regularly scheduled meetings of the board.

Section 6. Vacancies
1. A vacancy in the office of the President shall be filled by the Vice President. If such a vacancy occurs at a time when there is no Vice President, a President shall be elected by the Board of Directors to serve until the close of the next annual forum at which time a President and a Vice President shall be elected.
2. If a vacancy occurs in the office of Vice President, Secretary or Treasurer, the Board of Directors shall appoint a person to fill the unexpired term.
3. Vacancies on the Board of Directors may be filled by appointment of the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE VII - Duties and Responsibilities of Board of Directors

The Council’s Board of Directors is a working, volunteer board, that may be supported by staff. Duties and responsibilities outlined in this section apply to both board members and officers.

Section 1. Represent the Council
1. The primary role of a board member is to facilitate communication between the Council and other groups and individuals.
2. Board members serve as the liaison between the general membership and the Board of Directors. Board members are to represent and promote the Council whenever an opportunity arises.

Section 2. Board Meetings
1. Board members are expected to attend all board meetings.
2. The Board of Directors shall meet at least quarterly; the winter meeting will include an extended planning session.
3. Members who miss three consecutive scheduled meetings may be relieved of their duties.
4. A majority of board members constitutes a quorum.
5. The Board of Directors reserves the right to enter into Executive Session for confidential discussion of personnel, legal issues, and other matters, as appropriate.
6. Decisions of the Board shall be determined by a two-thirds majority vote of those present (recorded in attendance per the minutes) once a quorum has been established. The President retains the right to either call for a vote or to table a motion when further study is warranted.
Section 3. Annual Trees in Our Community Forum
Board members are expected to attend and participate actively in the annual forum. Board members should participate in as many forum activities as possible, and assist planning committee, as needed.

Section 4. Committees
Board members are expected to serve on at least one committee. Committees shall be chaired by board members who have completed at least one year of service.

Section 5. Expenses
Board members are responsible for their personal expenses. Reimbursement of expenses incurred on behalf of the Council up to $500 must be approved by the Treasurer, upon receipt. Any reimbursement of expenses beyond $500 must have the approval of the Board of Directors.

Section 6. Authority
1. Board members exercise their authority to govern the Council during meetings of the board during which the Board may take any legal action within the bounds of the Council’s Constitution and Bylaws.
2. Individual board members may not bind the Council to a particular course of action, endorse other groups or programs, commit funds or sign contracts on behalf of the Council unless authority to engage in these activities is specifically delegated by the full Board of Directors, or Executive Committee with subsequent ratification of the Board.
3. Outside of board meetings, board members function only as sources of information, ambassadors of goodwill, committee members and representatives of the Board to fulfill specifically defined tasks.

Section 7. Conflict of Interest
Serving on the Council’s Board of Directors requires that individual board members be able to distinguish what is good for the Council, as opposed to what is beneficial for the board member or for that board member’s institution of employment. In most cases, there are no outright legal or policy prohibitions against a board member’s participation in board actions that may benefit that individual. Benefits might be such things as: awarded contracts, enhanced opportunities for travel, projects leading to publication opportunities, etc. However, such arrangements need to be examined carefully for ethical considerations to ensure that the perception of such beneficial arrangements does not cast negative light on the Council, in the eyes of its members or other groups. Board members are required to sign a Conflict of Interest policy at the start of their term.
ARTICLE VIII - Duties and Responsibilities of Officers

In addition to those duties and responsibilities outlined in Article V, officers also bear specific duties and responsibilities as outlined herein.
