

Managing Kentucky's Urban Forests Workshop

Where: Boone County Cooperative
Extension Office
6028 Camp Ernst Rd.
Burlington, KY 41005

<https://managing-kentuckys-urban-forests-boone.eventbrite.com>

When: May 1, 2017 & May 2, 2017

Registration: Free (light lunch will be provided) on Eventbrite at: <https://managing-kentuckys-urban-forests-boone.eventbrite.com>.

Seating is limited so preregistration is required.

Cost: FREE

Participants are invited to register for one or both levels of training.

All Times are local. Registration at 8:00 am and lasting until 4:30 pm.

Agenda Topics:

Level 1

- The Role of Tree Boards in the Community (citizen)
- The Role of the Neighborhood in the Urban Forest
- Soils, Water, and Urban Trees
- The Not-So-Simple Act of Planting a Tree
- Infrastructure Conflicts: Protecting Trees & People
- How to Find Competent Arborists
- Trees, People, and the Law
- Diagnosis of Problems
- Resources and Opportunities

Level 2

- The Role of Tree Boards in the Community (urban forester)
- Legislation Templates for Ordinances
- Advanced Soils
- Techniques for Growing Trees in Urban Settings
- Identifying & Dealing with Invasive Plants
- Urban Forest Management Plans
- Valuation of Trees and Landscape Plantings
- Plants as Problem Solvers: Wind, Visual, Sound, Wildlife

Who Should Attend:

Level 1

- Master Gardeners
- Tree Board Members
- Interested Citizens
- Landscape Architects
- Ag & Natural Resources Coop Ext Service Agents
- Others wishing to advance their understanding arboriculture and urban forestry

Level 2

- Arborists
- Municipal Foresters
- Landscape Architects
- Coop Ext Agents for Horticulture
- Others seeking to advance their understanding of arboriculture and urban forestry

Hosted by UK Department of Horticulture, Cooperative Extension Service, and Kentucky Division of Forestry.

CEU's available for:

International Society of Arboriculture * Society of American Foresters * Master Gardeners * American Society of Landscape Architecture * (Other groups as requested)

